Welcome to Team Vodafone!

To date, Vodafone employees - aka Team Vodafone - have raised over £10m with Vodafone Foundation to fight some of the world's most pressing problems through fitness and fundraising. Now, its time to come 'All Together Now' for refugee education!

"Education will prepare refugee children and youth for the world of today and of tomorrow. In turn, it will make the world more resilient, sustainable and peaceful."

Filippo Grandi, UN High Commissioner for Refugees

Education is a tool for empowerment and a pathway to a better future.

Yet across the world, children are caught up in conflicts with devastating impacts on their lives. But with education comes hope - helping give young refugees the chance of a brighter future.

We have already seen the incredible impact education can bring to refugee learners through Vodafone Foundation's longstanding partnership with UNHCR, the UN Refugee Agency, to deliver the Instant Network Schools digital education programme.

Now, we're going one step further, fundraising to support UNHCR's work in refugee education and ensuring no one, including refugees, get left behind,

Useful Information

Paying in your money

All money raised on JustGiving is automatically paid to the Refugee Education Fund. Cheques (for donations over £300) should be made payable to 'Vodafone Foundation (Refugee Education Fund)', and sent, together with your details, to Marius Maxwell, Vodafone Foundation, Vodafone Group Headquarters, 1 Kingdom Street, London, W2 6BY. If you're fundraising from a local market, please contact connectingforgood@vodafone.com for advice on paying in your funds.

Don't forget

It's a legal requirement to include Vodafone Foundation's charity number on all publicity materials. If you're creating your own, please display this as: Vodafone Foundation is a UK registered charity no. 1193984.

Useful Information

Event Insurance

If you're organising an event, it won't be covered by Vodafone's insurance. You may need to arrange your own, unless you're already covered by home insurance, for example. The same applies for any contractors, sub-contractors or external facilities used - make sure they have the relevant experience and can demonstrate evidence of the relevant insurance cover. Vodafone Foundation and Vodafone won't be liable for any loss or injury arising out of the event or its organisation.

Food Hygiene

If you're fundraising by selling food and drink, please be very careful when handling food, and work to basic rules for safe preparation, storage, display and cooking. A licence is needed if you serve alcohol at your event. For more information, contact your local authority.

Useful Information

Health & Safety

You will be responsible for the health and safety of all involved in your fundraising event: check out The Institute of Fundraising and government websites for useful information about this.

Raffles, Lotteries & Draws

Raffles, lotteries and prize draws are a highly regulated area. If you are planning a fundraiser through one of these methods, please contact Vodafone Foundation beforehand.

Collections

If you're planning a collection that takes place in a publicly owned place, in the UK this activity is governed by strict legal requirements and must be licensed by your local authority. Please contact them for more information.

Coffee mornings

Invite your friends for a coffee morning on the weekend. Ask them to donate what they would have paid if they went to a cafe...

Bake a cake!

A classic bake sale always goes down a treat. But if you can't do a bake sale in person, bake a batch of your favourite cookies and send family and friends a tasty first class care package, for £10 each.

Book sale

Perfect time for a clear out. Help out the environment and sell your old books to be re-used and loved again.

Games Night

Host a night of games and challenges (think Taskmaster!). Add extra fundraising opportunities through penalty fines talking about work!

Show off!

Share your secret skills with friends or colleagues to teach them something new. Whether it's a hobby or business expertise, invite them to an online or in-person event using Eventbrite for donations.

Exercise Class

Invite people for a virtual exercise class for a fee. It could be yoga, pilates or old school aerobics, anything to get your heart pumping.

Sell your crafts

If you can paint, sew, knit or do woodwork, then use your crafty skills to make some bespoke crafts that you can sell online.

Community Recipes

Create your own recipe book by asking people to contribute their all-time favourite recipe. Then sell it on for all to enjoy.

e-signature update

Add your JustGiving page to your email signature, so nobody can miss it.

"It can be hard to know where to start with your fundraising. Break it down into small targets over your training period. Make your get-together with friends a bit more special by adding some games to a BBQ, organising a coffee morning or a quiz night. Then ask them to donate what they would for a drink or dinner out. We had an Instagram account too that meant people could follow along y our training journey and never miss an update (@wavebreakers2023).
