TESTIMONIALS FROM PREVIOUS WORK PLACEMENTS

Lewis Day shares his experience: "I had no idea what 'Operations' really even meant, and came out of it able to lead people on a site, with knowledge of how an event works, that I am able to take onto any future event I work on. Best thing about working at Threshold? The culture is unrivalled, everyone is of a similar mindset, and this creates a culture focused around being 'One Team'. A very sociable work environment, always with fun day's out, trips to the pub and jokes in the office. How the experience has set me up for the future: I am now working in a global events league (SailGP), and without my operations knowledge I gained from Threshold, I don't believe I would have got this job (direct quote from employer)!"

James Walton reflects: "Working at Threshold developed many skills that benefitted me for my final year of university as well as ones that are transferable into all workplaces including time management, communication and confidence working in a business environment. My favourite thing about working at Threshold is the opportunity to get outside on the event site, seeing all your work come to life and engaging with participants as they crush some crazy challenges! Working at Threshold gave me my first taste of working in a real business and the contacts and friends I made have kept me coming back for two more event seasons, so far!"

1. The written work: Submit an up to date CV (yours ideally) and a cover letter about why you think you would be the ideal candidate for the placement.
2. An initial chat: We will then want to chat in person, over video call or on the phone to see if we think you would thrive at Threshold.
3. The final test: The last part of the process, we would invite you to meet the members of the department in which we think you will thrive. An interview will be set up with the team, so they can get a feel for you and you can find out more about the great work they do.
